HUGH MILLER

Hugh is sober as usual and is still in the ring for Circuit Court Clerk.

When Mr. Griffin was making his canvass for Clerk six years ago, my understanding is he told you if you would vote for him once more he would not ask you to support him again for Circuit Clerk. Now you see very readily how he is sticking to his word. If a man owes you $50.00 and he tells you he will pay you on a certain date, of course you naturally look for him to do so. But if he doesn't comply with his promise, what has he done? Isn't Mr. Griffin's promise to the Republicans of this county just as binding? To be plain with you, don't it look like he just wants to use you as a tool? And is trying to run it over you, thinking probably that you have forgotten what he promised you. The flimsy excuse that he probably has to tell you, that he has had many people to ask him to run again, looks rather weak. For you know the Republicans of our county are not in the habit of begging people to run for an office. We have got too many that can fill our offices who are competent. Mr. Griffin knows he has had the office 12 long years now. He also knows there are others who are just as good a Republican as he, who need the office, and can do the work just as well as himself. Now don't you think a little division along the line would be just and right? Or is it right to turn an office over to one man and deed it to him, especially after he is connected with banking institutions and is a money lender? Think fellow Republicans about this. We are poor people, and if this office is good for one Republican it is good for another. The Republicans of Rockcastle county are honorable, up right, sensible people, and I do believe they will see that Mr. Griffin sticks to his promise.

Now, good people, do you believe in good schools for the purpose of educating your boys, in order that they might be able to fill the various stations of life? Now if you believe these things are you going to rob your boys by continuing in office a man 18 long years and one who has said he would not be a candidate again for re-election. Now people if you believe in good schools and this theory of giving opportunity. Then do not perpetuate the same one in office. Now if Mr. Griffin was my contending opponent and had a show of election I would say by so electing him you would rob your boys and others by giving a service of 18 long years to one man. Your boys would have grown to be old men in that length of time. Are these long terms in office to the best interests of the party and to the county? Think of this and answer as you may. Friends I would like to say a few words on the question of "might". Once in a while I hear of some Republican friend saying Hugh might do so and so again. Now let's see if we can't reason a little with the word "might" and see if it is a fair conclusion for you to settle upon. When you have your minister of the gospel to come to your churches and preach the word of God, what is the bone and sinew of his remarks in his sermon? Isn't it the fact that he dwells on the word reformation, don't he try to explain to those that are not leading a christian life to reform and live as they should live? I believe every one of you will agree with me on that. Now friends here is a man that has reformed. He has proven it to you by his daily walk. You not only know it from hearsay, but you see it with your own eyes. Now is it right for you good people to throw him down and give him the cold shoulder, when he has reformed? Is it christian like to tell him that you are afraid that he "might" fall again, or is it right to hold him up by giving him your right hand and telling him you are proud of him, and speak words of encouragement to him, or is it right to cast him off by saying to him oh you "might" do so and so again. Friends I leave this for you as good people to decide which is right and proper. Again if I should live 100 years and at the expiration of that time I should ask you for an office, and at the same time I had lived as I am now living, would you say that I might do as I did 102 years ago. So don't you think it would be proper and right to discard old "might" from your minds and help a man who is trying to live as he should. Especially one who has picked himself up out of a rut like I was in over 2 years ago. Friends I told you in my speech exactly what I would do if elected to this office. I not only promised you that I would keep a clean and sober office (and will do that) I know my opponent may tell you that I may drink again, or that I am now drinking. But you as sensible Republicans, as I know you are, will weigh that as only a political scheme and will never let them gull you into believing such bosh talk. You know that I have got more sense than to ask my Republican friends to vote for me if I had not been living as a man ought to live, and leading a sober life for over two years now. So I hope you will not be misled by listening to such talk. If you hear anything that worries you in regard to Hugh all I ask you is to investigate it thoroughly before you believe it. I have said to you before that I did not fear the truth, for "truth is mighty and will prevail". So don't worry yourself in the least. If you vote for me I will never betray your confidence, but will keep my promise to the letter. And as I said before if elected I will serve you as clerk as best I can. And above all else I will keep a clean and sober office. So look out for all kinds of false reports and bosh talk.

I have told you my dear people that Hugh did not fear the truth, when I say that, I mean it. Since I have become a candidate I want my opponents to tell my republican friends just anything they see proper in regard to my past record, just so they state the facts and truth. I was very much amused the other day when one of my supporters told me that he supposed my opponent would tell the people about me being before the county court some years ago and tried before 12 good men to determine which was the best place they could send me whether to the asylum or a private sanitarium for the terrible habit of drink. Well I told my friend that I did not care for that. I said if my opponent sees proper to tell the people that they are perfectly welcome to do so. I also said it would be the truth. But I said to him, Do you know what kind of verdict the jury brought in? He said, "No I have forgotten". I told him the jury said they could not send Hugh any where. The court said, "why" They then told the court, "Hugh was the smartest man in town". So friends I thought that was quite a compliment. I told the people that I would not care to be tried every day if such kind words as that could be said about me. The fact about the matter, dear republican friends is this, if my dear father, who is now laid to rest, could have managed to have sent me some where and could have confined me where I couldn't have gotten hold of liquor at all I would have quit sooner than I did and could have enjoyed life in a much more pleasant way and could have been a pleasure to my family and of some value to my county people.

So Hugh will not be scared in the least in regard to any old thing that my opponents can hatch up and tell on him. The good people of my county know me. Now dear opponents crack down and say any old thing you please you will find Hugh ready to answer it correctly and honestly. I want to say again to the republicans of Rockcastle I am fighting my own battle in this race and not a soul put Hugh on the track but himself. I now thank you for your kind attention and I also hope you will do all you can for Hugh in his race for clerk. Will write again soon.

I am your friend,
HUGH MILLER
P. S. Stick to Hugh he's all right.

THE LURIED GLOW OF DOOM was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams of Henrietta, Pa. His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said the poisoned blood had affected his lungs and nothing could save him. LIVINGSTON

Mrs. E. J. Carson, of Crab Orchard, is visiting the families of H. D. Magee and J. H. Browning. —Dispatcher Lemons was in Louisville Wednesday last.—Dr. W. J. Childress will take Thomas Jones to Louisville tomorrow to have his eyes treated.—Miss Alice Ward and Miss Ella Stanly are visiting their brother at Gravel Switch.—John Mullins came in from LaFollett Tenn., on a visit. John is looking fine.—J. W. Baker is in Louisville this week buying goods.

J. A. Oliver went to Knoxville last week to buy his spring and summer stock of goods.—Jim Burton, a son of W. H. Burton, is at home from Central City visiting his parents.—H. L. Delph will go to the city in a few days to buy his spring stock of goods.—W. G. Rivers has moved into Mr. Chewung's property in the upper part of town.—There is some talk of the New Livingston Coal Company beginning work soon.—Mrs. Bill Graves, who was very sick, is slowly improving.—The little son of Alvin Reynolds who has fever is some better.—John Baker who moved into the Baker property has moved to Berea and his brother, Bill, has moved into the house vacated by John.—John Treadaway from Cove, who was caught selling whisky Saturday night February 27 was arrested on the first day of this month by W. H. Burton tried and fined $50.00 and ten days in jail.

Dr. W. J. Childress reports that a little child of Bob Payne had an eye put out Monday. Mr. Payne was driving a nail when the hammer glanced and struck the child in the eye.—A little boy by the name of Schoonover happened to a very serious accident Monday. He rode a freight train to Perth and while there went to walk in front of a train when the train struck him and he was knocked several feet.

Dr. W. J. Childress was called and at this writing he is some better. So much for hoboeing.—H. D. Magee L. & N. yard foreman will quit boarding and go to house keeping. He will move over the river into his beautiful cottage. Harry is a mighty good man.—W. H. Burton the hustling marshal is kept busy hunting up the violators of the law. He hardly sleeps day or night and where least expected he most always shows up.—There is lots of sickness in this locality and the two doctors are kept busy, and we can say one thing for them, they have no superiors and very few equals. Don't think we wish to boast but we speak where of we know.—It looks like prosperity is sure coming now, Mr. App Taylor, section foreman, doubled his crew, E. J. Anderson has doubled his crew and H. D. Magee has taken on more men, Bowman & Cockrell have begun repairing their mill and will in a few days begin sawing, which will require several men and H. L. Delph is having logs cut and hauled to Livingston and giving such prices that they are bringing them for miles. So you see Livingston is not dead but has only been waiting until the fourth of March to have a new President.

A RELIGIOUS AUTHOR'S STATEMENT.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books writes: "For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed some frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." Chas. C. Davis.

Are Drugs Necessary? Do Drugs Cure Disease? Can Nature be Assisted?

If people were born right and afterwards lived right, there would be no use for medicine. Every doctor knows this. So do other well-informed people. One thing more. When a person lives wrongly, or acquires bodily weakness by heredity, medicine can do only very little. Medicine cannot cure him. Only chicanery claim that medicines will cure disease. Medicines may palliate symptoms. Medicines may urge the powers of Nature to resist disease. Medicines sometimes arouse the efforts of the human body to right itself against derangements. This is the most that medicine can do.

A man accidentally puts his finger in the fire. Instinctively he wets his finger in his mouth, then blows on it for the cooling effect. This is no cure. He knows it very well. But it makes it feel better for the time being.

People eat unwisely. This produces dyspepsia or indigestion. The only rational cure is to eat correctly. Yet if a palliative is at hand the pains of indigestion can be mitigated, the throes of dyspepsia assuaged. The medicine cannot be said to have cured. It simply palliates disagreeable symptoms. The cure must come through right living.

Take Peruna, for instance. No one claims Peruna is a cure for dyspepsia. But Peruna will stimulate the stomach to perform its function properly. Peruna will increase the flow of digestive fluids, without which digestion cannot be carried on at all. It will increase the relish of food, the appetite.

It is admitted that all this can be accomplished by right living, but there are so many people who either will not or do not know how to eat correctly that a tremendous amount of good can be done by the wise use of Peruna.

A stomach that has been frequently abused performs the function of digestion very lazily. Such a stomach allows the food to remain undigested for some time after it is swallowed. This leads to fermentation of the food. Sour stomachs is the result. This goes on week after week, until the blood is poisoned with the products of fermentation. This condition is very apt to produce rheumatism.

It is not claimed that Peruna will cure rheumatism. Nothing will cure rheumatism but correct living. But it is claimed that Peruna will assist a badly abused stomach to perform its work.

If a person would correct his habits, persist in right eating and temperate ways, undoubtedly the stomach would right itself, the blood would rid itself of the poison, and everything would be right. But as said before there are a multitude of people who will not or cannot adopt right methods of living. To such people Peruna is a boon. A dose before meals will assist the stomach to do its work. This prevents fermentation of the food, brings about normal digestion, and all the train of ills that follow indigestion disappear.

In other words, Peruna is helpful to those who live badly, or those who have acquired some chronic weakness. Peruna does not cure, but it assists the powers of Nature to bring about a cure. The whip does not increase the power of the horse to pull a load, but judiciously used it stimulates the horse to use his powers at the right time, without which he could not have pulled the load.

This illustrates the effect of Peruna, or any other good remedy upon the system. Taken at the right time, it calls forth the powers of the human system to meet the encroachments of disease, and thus cuts short, if not entirely ends, the diseased action.

No one should ever attempt to substitute medicine in the place of right living. In the end such an attempt will prove a disaster. But an occasional use of the right medicine at the right time is a godsend, and no reasonable person will undertake to deny it.

Those who know how to use Peruna find it of untold value. By and by the world will get wise enough so that through correct living no medicine at all will be needed. But that time has not arrived. In the meantime, while the world is approaching that perfection in which all medicine will be eliminated, Peruna is a handy remedy to have in the house.

Slight derangements of the stomach; slight catarrhal attacks of the liver, the throat, bronchial tubes, lungs or bowels; these attacks are sure to lead to grave diseases, and can be averted by the judicious use of Peruna.

Wouldn't you like to read a few unsolicited testimonials from people who have used Peruna, and who stand ready to confirm the above statements concerning it. If so, address the Peruna Drug Manufacturing Co., Columbus, Ohio, and we will send some prepaid.

JUDGE A. B. Anderson, of Chicago, before whom the famous Standard Oil Case came for hearing after reversal by the U. S. Supreme Court, instructed the jury to find "not guilty and the $29240,000 fine against the Standard Oil Co., is a thing of the past. Now that the Standard is released so far as that charge is concerned, wonder if John D. is going to hold the string for a while longer or will he allow business to resume its natural course? The $29240,000 fine against the Standard Oil Co., is the logical reason for the panic which has been for the last year, and a warning to those leading the prosecution to let up or suffer the consequence. An appalling situation that, a one man power such as the Standard Oil Co., with John D. Rockefeller at its head, who has such a controlling power, as to be able at any time to say what shall and what shall not be. Are we a free people or what are we?

Nothing could be more discreditable or more sure to destroy its influence than the injection of politics into the State Farmers Institute. There were unmistakable evidences that this was done in the institute held here. One of the evidences of it was shown in the large representation from the mountain counties. Twenty of these counties had delegates here when heretofore only three or four of these counties have been represented. Another evidence was to violate all precedent by taking from the chairman and also from the district the appointment of the committees and selecting them by a resolution naming them from the floor of the institute. The purpose of this was apparent. It was to defeat Mr. Moorman of the Second District, as a member of the State Board. Not because he was not efficient or faithful, but because he was a Democrat. The Republicans had a decided majority of the counties and they used the majority to accomplish their purposes which were in this particular of a partisan nature. —Elizabethtown News.

"LOCAL OPTION"

The people of Rockcastle county know what local option means. Something over ninety counties out of one hundred and nineteen have adopted a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors, in their respective counties. Since the local option law has been in force it has been shown that the expense of arrests, convictions, jail sentences etc., have diminished by more than one-half, so much so that the office of jailer has become in many places so worthless that the state has been asked to make it a salaried office, in view of the fact that the fees for services rendered and the profit of boarding prisoners has been so reduced that the jailer can't support his family, especially in dry territory. Some people in Rockcastle county do not know, that nearly three fourths of all the expenses of state government, are the result of criminal prosecutions and that perhaps 80 per cent or more of crime is directly or indirectly caused by the use of intoxicating liquors.

The liquor business furnishes more business for criminal courts than all else combined. Day by day in the police courts of large cities, and some small towns, a long docket of new and "continued" cases are everlastingly on trial where saloons exist.

The point, in all this argument is the enormous expense, that is incurred in criminal prosecution brought about by liquor. It is not necessary now, to say anything about the ruining of homes, the debanching influences that blight young lives and all the train of evils that surround us on every side.

The people of Rockcastle know this and they know how much has been accomplished by local option, and some know how much more could be accomplished if every officer in every neighborhood would do his duty. Every officer of this commonwealth takes a solemn oath to perform the duties of his office to the best of his ability, and there is not a law on the statute books that cannot be enforced if the officers will do their duty. There is just one other thing in this relation that but few people in Rockcastle know that ought to be known.

The local option law when advanced to "County Unit" dimensions is the most powerful and the most dreaded foe to the liquor trade. When applied to every county in Kentucky, the liquor traffic is doomed.

If Kentucky alone was the field in which this contest is raging it would not be worth the ink and paper on which this article is written but "state wide" is a feeble expression. The subject is world wide, and we are in the fight to win.

There never has been a time when the fight has been so fierce. The trade in one state punishes the party, that opposes it by electing state officers of the opposite party. In Indiana the republicans are punished, in Kentucky, the Democrats got a "licking" and so it goes.

Finally it ought to be known by friends of temperance in any form that the liquor trade sends drummers into all dry territory selling intoxicants distributing literature, and are employing attorneys to defend "boot leggers" Blind tiger men, furnish money to buy their fines, and in every way to defend the local option laws that now prevail.

Every town can furnish, and most of them do furnish its walking bar-rooms, its boot legger, or blind tiger or all of them. Why? Because liquor men, from start to finish, with but few exceptions are law breakers, especially laws that interferes with liquor selling. It is their business to furnish the stuff that causes men to kill, to rob, to commit murder, to destroy homes, and they flourish and grow rich where they can incite men to drink. It is their business to make as many customers as possible, and when one is thoroughly made, he is a customer for life, as long as he can take wife and children's food, clothing, and means of education to pay for the stuff.

The good people of Kentucky are not going to stand for this sort of thing any longer. The people of Rockcastle are going to stand by their officers. They stand for good government and they know there is not one element of good government in the liquor trade nor in the stuff, they sell. If any body can prove to me that the use of liquor is good for morals, good for health, good for the family, good for the church, good for widows, and orphans, good to reduce taxation, good for municipal state and national prosperity, I will take the stump, or be a drummer, or do anything, even pray for the success of the saloon. Fellow citizens we know it is a curse on us all, and must cease. Will we do our duty? Very devotedly

J. W. VAN WINKLE.

Some people are found in every little town who, because of illbreeding or more frequently a cross, ugly preverve unamiable disposition, are unwilling to extend the merest formal courtesy. The greatest odd bear that ever came from the polar regions is that sour, surly self contained ill conditioned man, says an exchange. When you pass him on the street, you get no friendly recognition. He may possibly emit a strange guttural sound which in the nomenclature of the well bred and refined is likened unto the grunt of a hog as it disports itself from its wallow. Such a man has hit the world on the wrong side or was born in the dark of the moon, and often himself thinks with his neighbors that it was an everlasting pity that he was ever born at all. Wherever you see him approaching, cold chills chase each other along your spinal column at a Nancy Hanks pace. When he has departed a relief takes possession of you and you thank the Lord that he has wisely distributed these surly, sour, old bears and they do not ruminate in one community. The old bear is the bitter weed at all social functions church circles, political gathering and in business life. Avoid him when you can for you do not feel like an angel for a time after the interview with him.

JOSEPH OWENS.
The tobacco growers who pooled their tobacco for two years, and, by their sacrifices and hardships and devotion to the cause of oppressed farmers, brought the arrogant Tobacco Trust to its knees and advanced the price of tobacco from 7c to 17c, continue the good work by pooling the 1909 crop. But they do not propose to, and will not, carry all of the burden and let the hangers-on reap the benefits. If 80 per cent of the growers will join with them in the pool well and good, if not, then organization will be laid aside and every man for himself can go lickety-split to see who can get rid of his tobacco first before prices strike the 5c level. And he will sprint some if he gets to a buyer before the price slides from under him. The fellow who has been upon the top rung picking the choicest plums while the pooler steadied the ladder will find his perch shaky when the pooler gets tired out and makes for the top branches, too. It is only a question of who will hit the ground first or hit it the hardest.

Old March has returned with its usual story wind, rain and sunshine.—Many farmers of this section are preparing for the coming crop.—J. B. Cummins attended church at old Mt. Pleasant last Sunday.—Much damage has been done here by the recent high waters.—The merchants of this vicinity are all smiling again on account of the egg market. And oh, what a good time for the ladies who so patiently feeds and cares for biddy through the cold winter storms.

Delbord & Lathim bought a hen last week that brought 80 cents by weight.—Miss Fannie Delbord has returned home after an extended visit to her sister Mrs. Wade Brown of McAlister I. T.—Winfield Cress and family visited at Gaines Cummins last Sunday.—Wm. Hurst, of Level Green was in our midst last Saturday on business.—The farmers of this neighborhood have joined the farmers telephone company and are putting a line from Good Hope church in Pulaski county, by way of Walnut Grove and Level Green thence up the Crab Orchard road to the cross roads near J. L. Hasty's, thence the Mt. Vernon road to Jack Sutton's, who is located on the Mrs. Ellen Baker farm. May the good work go on until it reaches Mt. Vernon, so we would have communication to our place of business over the farmers line.

Rev. James Cummins of this place is canvassing the county in interest of his race for county clerk.—Charles Carmical, who has been a standing candidate for jailer for four years canvassed the west side last week in the interest of his and is well pleased with the out look.—Well Mr. Ed the writer saw 12 turtle doves in one flock last week. Do you reckon winter is over or is it just a saying that pap and mother taught us thirty years ago? You know mother always made her soap light moon in March and stirred it with a sassafras stick.

TALK ABOUT SPRING CLOTHING

Now is the time to buy, and
"Shield Brand"
is the kind to buy.

WHY NOT?

This is the first Spring month and a suit bought now can be worn longer than if bought later, assuming that it is good enough to start with, to last through the summer and until cold weather comes again which is the case with "Shield Brand" Clothing, sold at seven prices within the range of

Eat What

You want of the food you need Kodol will digest it.

You need a sufficient amount of good wholesome food and more than this you need to fully digest it.

Else you can't gain strength, nor can you strengthen your stomach if it is weak.

You must eat in order to live and maintain strength.

You must not diet, because the body requires that you eat a sufficient amount of food regularly.

But this food must be digested, and it must be digested thoroughly. When the stomach can't do it, you must take something that will help the stomach.

The proper way to do is to eat what you want, and let Kodol digest the food.

Nothing else can do this. When the stomach is weak it needs help; you must help it by giving it rest, and Kodol will do that.

Our Guarantee

Go to your druggist today, and purchase a dollar bottle, and if you can honestly say, that you did not receive any benefits from it, after using the entire bottle, the druggist will refund your money to you without question or delay.

We will pay the druggist the price of the bottle purchased by you. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family.

We could not afford to make such an offer, unless we positively knew what Kodol will do for you. It would bankrupt us. The dollar bottle contains 25 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is made at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.

EASY TO MIX THIS.

What will appear very interesting to many people here is the article taken from a New York daily paper, giving a simple prescription, which is said to be a positive remedy for backache or kidney or bladder derangement, if taken before the stage of Bright's disease:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

A well-known druggist here at home, when asked regarding this prescription, stated that the ingredients are all harmless, and can be obtained at a small cost from any good prescription pharmacy, or the mixture would be put up if asked to do so. He further stated that while this prescription is often prescribed in rheumatic affections with splendid results, he could see no reason why it would not be a splendid remedy for kidney and urinary troubles and backache, as it has a peculiar action upon the kidney structure, cleansing these most important organs and helping them to sift and filter from the blood the foul acids and waste matter which cause sickness and suffering. Those of our readers who suffer can make no mistake in giving it a trial.

QUAIL.

Having seen no Quail items in the dear old Signal for some time thought I would come forth again. —Services were held at Bebel from Saturday night until Sunday night, conducted by Rev. Foley. —James Thompson, who was shot, still remain in a very serious condition. —There has been some talk of a post office being established at P. Q. Griffins about 2 1/2 miles southwest of Quail.

Morris Taylor and Elbert Elder will leave for the west soon. —The little child of D. E. Herrin has bronchial trouble. —Aunt Margaret Reynolds is very low and not expected to live but a short while. —The result of a cancer of the tongue. —Jack Mullins is numbered among the sick. The rain in abundance has retarded the farmers very much with their work. —W. G. Parsons of Livingston, is spending a few days with relatives in this section. —Elder and Owens say they are getting along splendidly with their singing school at Burr.

How can any person risk taking some unknown cough remedy when Foley's Honey and Tar costs them no more? It is a safe remedy when Foley's Honey and Tar costs them no more? It is a safe remedy contains no harmful drugs, and cures the most obstinate coughs and colds. Why experiment with your health? Insist upon having the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar Sold by Chas. C. Davis.

Ruth Bryan Leavitt, oldest daughter of William L. Bryan, was granted a divorce from W. H. Leavitt yesterday at Lincoln, Neb.
